A CABLEGRAM says that two large jars of nitro-glycerine have reached Cork from Glasgow, addressed to O'Herlihy. The police have discovered a quantity of explosives freshly buried in a field at Kainap. near Cork. Two carboys of nitro-glycerine have been lying at the Clyde Shipping Company's stores in London since the 4th inst. They are consigned by a Glasgow firm to O'Herlihy.

THE Southern Indiana Teachers' Association closed a successful annual session at Washington Saturday, fully 200 members being present. The next meeting will be held at Jeffersonville, commencing April 5, 1884. The officers for the ensuing year are: A. M. Sweeney, of Jasper, President, Miss Annie Sanford, of Washington, Secretary; C. D. Bogart, of North Vernon, Treasurer; D. S. Kelly, of Jefferfonville, Chairman of Executive Committee.

Immigration to the Northwest.

ST. PAUL, MINN., April 9 .- The tide of immigration to the Northwest has set in at least a month earlier than in former years, and thus far has surpassed anything ever known. All roads to the Northwest are taxed to their utmost capacity, and the freight yards and side tracks are filled with cars of immigrants and movables en route to Minnesota, Dakota and Manitoba. Ten thousand passengers are received here per week and forwarded to Northwestern points by way of the Northern Pacific and Manitoba lines.

SARATOGA, N. Y., April 9 .- William A. Rood, aged fourteen, accidentally hung himself at Greenfield Center yesterday. The inquest to-day disclosed the fact that he had been making a practical demonstration of the manner in which executions are conducted for the information of a younger plot to blackmail and injure the character of Mary Anderson, the great actress, has are as follows: A few weeks ago the Chief of Police of Pittsburg received a some time previously, he had gotten a communication through the mail from Dr. George H. Marshall, of Pittsburg, accompanied by a pen printed letter. The letter purported to be an advertisement for the sale of a lot of pictures of Miss Anderson's nude form. Dr. Marshall, in his letter, explained to Dr. Griffin that he had come into possession of the pen-printed letter and had, by investigation, found that certain parties had made a large number of the obscene photographs and proposed to cast them to the public everywhere unless Mary Anderson and her family gave $10,000. To Marshall's letter Dr. Griffin paid no attention, and in a few weeks he received a second note from him, again warning of the scheme, adding that he only told him of it because of the courtesy that should exist between physicians. Upon the receipt of this letter, Dr. Griffin forwarded all the correspondence to the chief of police in Pittsburg, asking him to investigate its truth. The chief wrote back referring the doctor to Major Montooth, a prominent attorney here. A hitch subsequently occurred between the doctor and lawyer about fees, and the chief's aid was again sought. Dr. Griffin, writing that he was not able to handle the case because of a want of jurisdiction, instructed that it should be placed in the hands of the State or United States officials. The result was that to-day the whole matter was placed in the hands of the postoffice detectives or special agents at this city for a thorough investigation. Ir is shown that nearly all the fine Dr. Marshall has a bad record here. He was only released from the penitentiary six months ago, where he served a term

INDIANA TEACHERS.

Close of a Successful Session of the Southern Indiana Association.

WASHINGTON, IND., April 9 .- The Southern Indiana Teachers' Association closed its sixth annual session in this city Saturday. The session was attended by over two hundred teachers, among whom were some of the leading educators of the State. Papers were read by Professors D. S. Jordan, of the State University; James G. May, of Salem, aged seventy-eight; D. S. Kelly, Superintendent of the Jeffersonville schools; Howard Sandison, of the State Normal; John L. Campbell, of Wabash College; Miss Kate Huron, of the Danville Normal: D. M. Geeting, County Superintendent of Daviess county, and Hamlet Allen, Principal of the Washington High School, Professor C. E. McVay, of Cincinnati, gave experiments in natural philosophy, and Hon. E. E. White, ex-Superintendent of Public Instruction of Ohio, later President of Purdue University at Lafayette, delivered a sterling address on "Life." This was the most successful session the association has ever held. The next meeting will be held at Jeffersonville, commencing April 5, 1884. The officers for the ensuing year are A. M. Sweeney, of Jasper, President; Miss Annie Sanford, of Washington, Secretary; C. D. Bogart, of North Vernon, Treasurer; D. S. Kelly, of Jeffersonville, Chairman of Executive Com-

A Family Drowned Near Owingsville, Kentucky.

OWINGSVILLE, KY., April 9 .- Martin Manen, tollgate keeper on the Wyoming pike, near this place, and three of his children were drowned last night. There was a sudden freshet in Prickley Ash creek and he had no time to remove his family. The destruction of property along Prickley Ash is immense. For five miles down the creek there are not a dozen panels of fence left standing on either side, and in many places huge quantities of rock and gravel are left on the land.

Chicago Painters Planning a Strike. CHICAGO, April 9 .- Two hundred journeymen painters met yesterday to discuss a proposed strike for an advance from $2.50 to $3 per day. In order to perfect the organization of a Painters' Co-operative Union, an adjournment was taken to Wednesday, when no doubt the strike will be ordered. Great indignation was expressed by the men at the discovery that the bosses were issuing cards to men upon leaving a job, which bear certain cabalistic signs understood by all the bosses, and which prevent the men from receiving the highest wages.

SYSTEMATICALLY DOSED

With Bogus Wines-The French Government's Exposure of Its Dealers'

NEW YORK, April 8 .- The Philadelphia Press has drawn editorial attention to the recent expose made by the French Government of the tricks of the French wine trade, and a widespread sensation among those who have been priding themselves upon their exclusive use of imported wines | rapidly and soon all cries were hushed, the is the result. The Press says: Foreign dealers have turned upon the French PITTSBURG, PA., April 9.-A deeply laid Government for its recent exposure of the tricks of the wine trade. Careful scientific analysis, recently made throughout all the exporting entrepots of France, have just been made public at police headquar- shown that not a drop of pure wine of the ters in this city. The particulars in brief Burgundy or Bordeaux market is now sent out to American consumers. Supplementing the government tests, we have had reports of the most exhaustive description letter from Dr. Hamilton Griffin, step- from our own and foreign consuls, corfather of Mary Anderson. It set forth that roborating every charge of the French commissions. But as Burgundy and Bordeaux retain precedence in the markets, the great houses of Macon, Rheims and Bordeaux have unhesitatingly placed their trade-mark upon all sorts of decoctions. Our home dealers soom became apprised of the condition of things, and, going a step farther, they have labeled home wines with the highest stamp of the Burgundy and Bordeaux vineyards, and sell millions of callons under this fraudulent 'dovice. The French dealers have united to protest against the Government's exposure of the abricated wines, and it is not unlikely that the subject will be smoothed over by uspension of the labors of the committee.

Americans, however, have had ample warning. Most of the wine drunk in this country is either the direct product of our home vineyards, or it is a thinly disguised mixture of the strong liquids of the South, where such delicate flavor and bouquet as are marked essentials of the French wines are unknown. The extent to which this shameless traffic has been carried should have the effect of establishing American wine permanently upon every table where wine is used. For while our red and white wines lack the delicate bouquet and fine finish he French, they are uncomparably superior to the Spanish yield. The truth is there is a good deal of sham and snobbery in the business of wine drinking, as in fashious of other sorts. Millions of bottles of champagne with the labels of famous cellars are sold and drunk in this country, which cannot possibly be the product of the plains of Champagne. Even the fine brands of cognac conceal a well understood adulteration, which removes the best product of France from its ancient superiority. American dealers lose in the end by encouraging this dishonest system, because they virtually close the market to he many excellent wines we are now producing in this country.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY NEW

A Strong Probability That He Will Resign Soon.

WASHINGTON, April 9 .- Assistant Secretary New arrived here yesterday from Indianapolis, and last night he received several callers at his rooms at the Williard. The papers here say he intends resigning his position as Assistant Secretary, and that he feels the cut given him by Gresham's appointment very keenly. Said one of his most intimate friends yesterday: "I have no doubt Mr. New will resign his position in the Treasury. He is just the man to do it, and with due respect to his dignity I shall advise him to do it."

How soon?" I asked. "Not until this breeze quiets down. But I would not be at all surprised if he should resign to-morrow, although I do not anticipate it under a month. He is the kind of man to resent a cut of this kind, and he is not afraid to speak of it either; he is 'out and out' himself. I don't believe there's a Republican of prominence in the State. not even excepting Gresham himself, but that believes in his own mind that Mr. New has not been fairly treated by the Administration. He was the first man of prominence in Indiana to espouse the Arthur cause, and he took the position he now occupies with the promise of getting a Cabinet office. Never mind, there will be a day of reckoning."

A paper says it is rumored that Secretary Folger intends going out of the Cabinet in a short time, and that he engineered the appointment of Gresham as Postmaster General in order to prevent John C. New succeeding as Secretary of the Treasury.

National Land League Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, April 9 .- The Central Union, composed of delegates from the various branches in Philadelphia of the Land League, met yesterday to arrange for the National Convention, which will be held here on the 26th inst. The Executive Committee was instructed to issue a call for a public meeting to arrange for a banquet to be tendered to Mr. Parnell upon his arrival here to attend the convention. A dispatch was read from James Mooney, President of the National Land League, questioning the accuracy of the cablegrams which had declared that Parnell would not attend the convention. This was greeted with applause. Many tickets have already been sold for the reception to Mr. Parnell, to be given in the Academy of Music on the 27th inst. It was resolved to invite Governor Pattison to preside at this reception.

Thirteen Lives Lost in the Hotel Fire at Greenville, Texas-Notes and In-

GALVESTON, April 9 .- A dispatch from Greenville gives the following particulars of the disaster on Friday night: When the hotel fell the shrieks and cries from the inmates, who were crushed in the ruins, were appalling, but the fire, which at once started in the ruins, spread fiames having done their deadly work. The following were either killed outright or burned to death in the ruins: Mrs. Pruitt, proprietress of the hotel, George Pruitt, a crippled son of Mrs. Pruitt; Louis Albert, burned alive; F. D. N. Reilley, contractor, crushed; Frank West, crushed; R. R. Neal, Miss Lou Davis, J. E. Ford, Mr. Hill and four negro servants. The above named were buried in the ruins, and it was utterly impossible to render assistance to those who were not killed instautly. A few lumps of charred flesh and bones, representing the remains of human beings have been recovered. The following inmates of the hotel were injured: W. D. Pruitt, badly mangled; Dr. Turner, probably fatally crushed; M. G. Mars, bruised. The slightly injured are D. C. Bell, K. N. Denton, Tom Victores, Louis Morris, Charles Brownell, Percy Cox, W. T. McClure, and Fred. Ende, wife, two daughters, and servant. Dr. Turner lay beneath the timbers until they burned in twain and released him. Mr. Denton escaped death by a second falling of walls, which released him. One man cut his throat when he found the flames burning him. The cause of the calamity is uncertain. It is thought that an explosion of powder in Armstead's hardware store blew out the west wall, causing the entire building to fall. The adjoining buildings were destroyed. Mr. D. Pruit raved like a maniac when he knew of his mother's horrible death, and it required several strong men to save him from plunging headlong into the flames. A telegram was sent to Sherman for a fire engine, which came at the speed of a mile a minute, arriving at daylight. For six hours it poured a stream of water into the flames, but too late to Schaefer and Vignaux to Do a Little Hippodroming.

Sr. Louis, Mo., April 9 .- Just now excitement is running high in the sporting world; billiards is the thing. Mr. J. W. McCullagh has completed all arrangements for the match game of billiards between Jacob Schaefer and Maurice Vignaux, which will take place in Masonic Hall on Friday evening next. The table will be placed in the center of the hall, and seats will be built around it in amphitheatre style, so that every spectator will have a full view of the game. Mc-Cullagh stated this morning that it will be no exibition affair, but an actual match. Schaefer and Vignaux have expressly stipulated that they would not play unless it was settled that the winner got all the gate money, less actual expenses. Mr. McCullagh was further required to guarantee that this sum would reach $500. Vignaux is anxious to get even with Schaefer, and as this will be the first meeting after the tournament, each will play as hard as he can. The game will be 1,500 points. straight billards, French caroms. Schaefer's recent victory makes him the favorite among the betting men, but where odds are given they are very small.

After playing here Vignaux will go to Cincinnati, playing there three days.

MORMONS IN CONFERENCE. Nearly Every State in the Union

Represented by Delegates at Mirtland.

KIRTLAND, O., April 9 .- The great Morman Conference is being held here. Nearly every State in the Union is represented by delegates, and England, Scotland and Wales by letter. William Smith, brother of the founder, one of the original twelve apostles, and the oldest Morman now living is here.

The reports from the different missionary fields have been submitted. They show that nearly four hundred converts were made in the United States and Canadas during the past year. The officials are much pleased. They say that opposition and persecution are things of the past. The missionary delegates will ask for help in the shape of men ordained by the Church. They claim that there never was a more auspicious time in the history of Mormonism than the present, and that lack of ministers alone prevents great accessions to the Church. They assert that men and women are becoming intensely interested in the subject. Social ostracism, which exists in some localities, is fast wearing off.

Joseph Smith preached last Sunday and hundreds came to hear him. A memorial will be presented to Congress, expressing the earnest desire of these Mormons that it use every possible means to crush out polygamy in Congress. It is understood that ostensibly the gathering is for the in-terchange and exposition of Mormon doctrine and the more perfect organization of the Church. The chief motive is the establishment of a Mormon college at Kirt-

▲ County Treasurer Under Suspicion. EAST SAGINAW, MICH., April 9 .- On the night of March 16, James Atherton, Treas-

THE GREENVILLE HORROR. urer of Oscoda county, arrived here from Detroit and claimed to have lost his pocket book containing $1,000. He offered a reward of $500 for its recovery, and said that of the amount lost all but $500 was county funds. When he reached home suspicion was aroused at the conflicting stories he had told, and the matter was investigated. He claimed that the money lost was drawn from the American National Bank of Detroit, when in fact he drew no money there, but paid $17 to balance an account which was overdrawn to that amount. The Board of Supervisors rejected his bond, declared the office vacant, and appointed a successor. The prosecuting attorney says that Atherton is short to the county $2,061, and will be arrested on Monday and be charged with embezzlement.

Ganeral Sherman's Tour.

Washington, April 9 .- General Sherman will some time in June start upon his last tour of inspection of the army posts. He will not be accompanied by ladies on this trip, as he has hitherto been, as it will be too rough for ladies. Sometimes the party will travel on horses, sometimes on mules, and sometimes in rough wagon roads. Chief Justice Waite, Justice Gray, and General Tidball, and Colonel Bacon, of the General's staff, will be of the party. They will go first to Detroit, and thence through the northern portions of all the territories, including the outposts in Alaska. In returning, they will visit California, and the Yellowstone Park. They will not start until after General Shermau has attended the graduating exercises at West Point.

Coming Trouble in Indian Territory. VINITA, INDIAN TERRITORY, April 9 .- It is learned to-day that a war is imminent between the Cherokee and Creek nations.

The Creek council has passed a law confiscating all cattle belonging to Cherokee citizens living on the line between the two nations when these cattle stray over the

The Cherokees have no such law, and its enforcement is creating a great disturbance, and will lead to open war. Chief's Chicote and Busyhead are now engaged in exchanging formal notes and proclamations, and Spioche's followers and the would-be avenger of the death of Sleeping Rabbit are secretly arming.

Cotton Centennial Exposition.

VICKSBURG, MISS., April 9 .- The National Cotton Planters' Association has advices that the Legislature of Arkansas has made an appropriation of $2,000 for the purpose of a State exhibit at at the World's Industrial and Cotton Centennial Exposition, to be held the association in 1884. This action of the Arkansas Legislature was taken without any solicitation from the association, and may be considered a prelude to what other States of the Union will do when called upon. The next meeting of the executive committee of the Cotton Planters' Association will be held on the 24th instant, when, it is thought, the above exposition will be definitely fixed.

Not Indians, But Smugglers.

DEMING, N. M., April 9 .- The fact has been established to the satisfaction of army officers that the supposed band of Renegade Indians that crossed the Southern Pacific rack west of Gage Station on Thursday were, in reality, smugglers, Captain Thompson, of the 4th Cavalry, with a squal, camped on the trail of the all eged redskins, and reports that the suspicious and were smugglers from old Mexico. Smuggling is freely indulged in, and to such an extent that it has been found necessary to attach another mounted inspector to the custom house at Deming, therefore this explanation of the suspicious body of men who made warlike demonstrations toward a Southern Pacific track walker is generally accepted as correct.

Ten Years for Robbery.

LITTLE ROCK, April 9 .- On the 8th of January last a men by the name of Prince, representing himself as a United States detective, arrested a man by the name of McKinna in this city, and took him to the Grand Hotel, and in a private room, under pretense of examining him, robbed him of $150, locked him in the room, and started for the train. The police were on the watch for the conclusion of his operation, and finding him through and leaving, arrested him, when he offered them the money to release him. They placed him in prison, and he was arraigned Saturday and pleaded guilty, throwing himself on the mercy of the court. He received ten years in the Penitentiary.

The Murder of Mrs. Carleton. Boston, April 9 .- The suit of clothes which Cunliff, suspected of the murder of Mrs. Carleton, threw into the Charles River was recovered, and has been given to a chemist for examination. It appears now that Clark, the informer, told several persons besides the police that Cunliff had confessed to him. To one he said that he had the piece of soap with which Cunliff washed the blood stains off his hands, and that he would not take $50 for it. The police point out a number of inconsistencies in his story, but it seems incredible that he should tell such a story if it were not partly true.

A DESPATCH from Frankfort, Ky., says: A very important order, promising much future vexation and litigation, and involving the consideration of large sums of money, was entered on the Order Book of the County Court to-day by Judge R. A. Thomson, in the case of the Commonwealth, for the county of Franklin, vs. the Farmers' Bank and the Deposit Bank, of this city. Under the general tax law, and in many instances, special clauses in their charters, the banks pay directly to the State Auditor a tax of fifty cents on each $100 worth of capital stock, claiming thereby exemption from the payment of all city and county taxes. The matter of a tax against corporations for county levy purposes has never been tested before, and to that end the sheriff of this county reported these banks delinquent from 1876 to 1882, inclusive. The case was first brought to the attention of Judge Thomson last summer, since which time he bas been diligently examining the merits of the defendants' answers to the sheriff's rule, citing them to list their property for assessment, and in the order entered to-day he decides that the capital stock and all other property of these banks are liable for taxation for county levy purposes. If the Court of Appeals, where it is the intention to carry the suit, affirms this decision, it will spring a new source of county revenue in every county in the State, such banks only being exempted that have special clauses in their charters relating to this distinctive feature of

THE postal legislation enacted by the last Congress is of much importance and benefit to the public. It provides that on and after July 1st of the current year postal notes, in sums of $5 and under. may be had at any money-order office on payment of a fee of three cents. These notes will be payable to bearer upon presentation, within three months from date, at any money order office in the country. After three months they will be redeemed at their face in Washington. Another provision of the new law provides for the issue of money orders in a sum as large as $100, whereas the maxim now is $50. On and after July 1, next, fees for orders will be as follows:

TUESDAY EVE., APRIL 10, 1883.

"SHE was sitting at the window As he passed. And he wished himself in Hindoo -Stan, for fast In the gutter stuck his shoe.

And straight in the air he flew All aghast.

He was sitting in a puddle Awful mad, And his head was in a muddle, It was sad; While that girl she coldly smiled, Which the more his soul it riled, Crushed lad.

He was sitting at the window As she fell. I think it was a sin, do You as well? He turned not away his head They were silk and colored red, Don't you tell."

MR. T. F. KIFF, who came to Maysville a stranger several years ago, by persistent attention to his business and politeness to his patrons has established a prosperous trade. MRS. DILLMAN'S STATEMENT

The Dying Woman Relates the Details of Her Husband's Brutal Attack. EASTON, PA., April 9 .- Coroner Ubler visited the alms-house to-day and took the statement of Mrs. John Dillman, whose throat was cut by her husband last week. and who is rapidly growing worse. Her story, told as best possible under the trying and painful circumstances, is this: Her maiden name was Charlotte McNear, and she was the daughter of William Mc-Near, of Hanover township. She married Dillman twenty years ago, and lived in various places with him, principally South Bethlehem, Freemansburg and Redington. Six months ago, while living at the latter place, Dillman threatened to kill her. They went to the alms-house in January with four children, remained two weeks. then went to Mrs. Dillman's brother's, in Bethlehem, and two weeks later the wife and children returned to the alms-house. while Dillman went to Fracksville, near Mahanoy City.

On the 28th of March he reappeared a the alms-house with a new dress for Mrs Dillman and asked her to go to South Bethlehem, as he had rented a house. They accordingly started next morning. Dillman was in a good humor all the time. When near Hecktown he said he would turn in a lane, as it was a short cut to their destination. Just after entering the lane the man seized his wife, threw her down, and. placing a knee on her body, said was tired of her and would kill her. She implored him to desist, and to let her live apart from him. but he paid no heed to her, but drew a piece of cord from his pocket, tied her hands, and then, opening a knife, cut her throat, she all the time entreating him to spare her life. He then ran across the fields. The rest of the story, how she walked 500 yards to a house, then a mile to Hecktown and finally was driven to the alms-house, has already been told.

Mrs. Dillman suffers a great deal. She cannot speak unless her throat is tightly bandaged. Food is passed to her throat through the opening in the neck. Twice this opening has been sewed up, but immediately after coughing sets in, and the action in the throat sever the stiches. When speaking, Mrs. Dillman frequently uses water to rinse her throat, as it becomes very dry and parched. The windpipe has been severed, and when she coughs it sometimes falls far into the chest. Her case is a remakable one, and in the event of her recovery will be one of the most wonderful on record.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

House of a Sheriff Blown Up-Prepa. rations for the Trial of the Phoenix Park Murderers - Great Fire in Switzerland, etc.

DUBLIN, April 9 .- The house of the Sheriff at Tralee has been blown up with gunpowder. No person was injured. Two arrests have been made.

DUBLIN, April 9 .- The secret inquiry at the Castle before Mr. Curran has not been concluded. From the peculiar methods adopted by the authorities in conducting the examination of witnesses, it believed that evidence is being collected or created for the purpose of mak ing a strong rebuttal, in case the prisoners charged with the Phœnix Park murderers adhere to their determination of relying upon an alibi for their defense. The detective police now claim that every movement on the 6th of May of the men who are to be arraigned as the actual murderers o Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke has been ascertained through discovering the persons with whom the men associated from time to time during the day and afternoon and up to the time when they left Dame street for the purpose of lying in wait at the place where the murders were committed. Extra precautions have been adopted at Kilmainham jail, where the great conspiracy prisoners are contined.

GENEVA, April 9 .- A fire which promises to assume extensive proportions has broken out at Bonme, near this city. Twenty houses have already been destroyed.

LONDON, April 9 .- A letter from Michael Davitt is published to-day in which he further expresses his opposition to a dynamite policy on the part of the Irishmen. He declares that such a policy is insane, idiotic and criminal.

PARIS, April 9 .- The police are keeping close watch over a number of Russian refugees here who they suspect are connected with the alleged plot to take the life of the Czar at the time of the coronation. It is reported that some French detectives will proceed to Moscow on that occasion to assist the Russian police in watching suspected persons.

The Augustinian Society.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 9 .- The Augustinian Society, which sunk half a million of Catholic money in unprofitable banking, will go into insolvency, not having been able to prevail upon the creditors to withdraw their lawsuits. It is expected that all the church property, including churches, school buildings, and several parcels of real estate owned by the society here, and other property in Andover, will be sold, the proceeds to go toward liquidating the existing debt.

Killed by Lightning.

JASPER, TENN., April 9 .- During a thunder storm yesterday Tobias Netherland was killed by lightning, and Postmaster Tanking severely shocked. Two horses were killed instantly, and several other persons severely shocked. Netherland's flesh was opened to the bone from the point of the shoulders down to the end of the right foot. The greatest excitement pre-

HOG THIEF HANGED.

A Saturday Evening Matinee in Jefferson County, Mo.

Potosi, Mo., April 9 .- The case of Mack Marsden, the hog thief, culminated in a lynching near De Soto, in Jefferson county. Long before Marsden was arrested for stealing hogs he was regarded as a desperate character, to be dreaded by every honest man. Two murders that had never been so'ved were attributed to him. One was that of a man named Vail, who was killed for his money and his cabin fired to conceal the crime. The other was that of Joseph Yerger, who was slain at his own door at Antonia Postoffice, not far from Hillsboro, the county seat.

He was tried at Hillsboro Saturday and admitted to bail. On his way home to Sandy Creek Bridge he was met late that night by a mob at Victoria.

Without any bandying of words a rider leaped from his horse and encircled Marsden's neck in a noose at the end of a long rope. From the time the rope was put around his neck until he was taken to a tree on the hillside scarcely three minutes

A short wait was given him while one end of the rope was thrown over a limb. Sturdy hands seized the rope along fifty feet of its length, and at the signal, "All ready, go," the doomed hog thief and murderer shot up ten feet in the air and hung until he was dead. After making sure of the result the lynchers rode away toward Sandy Creek.

Chicago Freight Rates East.

CHICAGO, April 9 .- Within two weeks the volume of east bound freight-flour, grain, and provisions-from this city has fallen off 56 per cent. This indicates that the shippers are holding off for the opening of navigation. There are intimations of coming troubles between the east bound roads arising out of difficulties regarding the pool percentage and an attempt on the part of some of the roads to advance the rates on dressed beef, to which the Grand Trunk, which carries the bulk of the traffic, will not consent.

A Swiss Fown Burned.

GENEVA, March 9 .-- A conflagration at Vallorbes, in the canton of Vand, has destroyed 145 houses, together with the postoffice, in which important securities were deposited. Twelve hundred persons have been made homeless by the disaster.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

tack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried Aver's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the Pectoral a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your Cherry Pectoral saved me. Horace Fairbrother." Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup. - A Mother's Tribute.

Croup. —A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."

Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of Aver's Cherry Pectoral, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
